Superintendent's Report

Don said we've having the normal winter breakdowns; the radiator blew on the Volvo, the power steering pump is leaking on the Mack, and seals need to be replaced on the loader (in the spring). Allen, the new hire, is doing well.

The Ford F-550 needs to go in the shop for a recall. Don will call Brown's and arrange for a 4-wheel drive loaner.

Old Business

The town received the remaining $50,958.72 CHIPS reimbursement.
National Grid has filed for a subdivision of the Hayes property for their new substation. The planning board will meet on this January 25th. Councilman Snell has talked to Assemblyman Smullen about the Cemetery's concerns.

New Business

Attorney Ayers has received all the necessary information to abandon the Saltsman Road.
